His shotgun taken by police, Dale Farm neighbour says he lives in fear

I'M NOT SAFE IN MY OWN HOME

A MAN whose home backs on to the Dale Farm traveller site says he feels "vulnerable and unprotected" after police confiscated his shotgun.

Len Gridley, 52, of Oak Road, Crays Hill, was arrested and held for nearly 12 hours after he tried

By JON AUSTIN jon.austin@nqe.com to set fire to tarpaulin sheets around a scaffold barricade set up by protesters.

He has been released on police bail but his licensed shotgun has been taken away.
